

SPEEDPOST WORLDWIDE PARCEL SERVICE-TERMS & CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

1. Mode of Service

1.1. Parcels may be sent by air or sea where applicable.

2. Postage

2.1. To find out about the postage rates, please call our Hotline at 1800-2225777 or visit us at any of our Singapore Post branches or log onto our website www.speedpost.com.sg.

2.2. Parcels are subject to the prevailing fuel surcharge and global security surcharge.

3. Weight and Size limits

3.1. The standard maximum weight limit for any parcel is 30kg, with the exception of certain destinations where it may be different. This will be determined by Singapore Post.

3.2. The standard size, which is determined by the sum of the greatest length and girth (twice of width and twice of depth) should not exceed 3 metres, except to some destinations where it may be different. This will be determined by Singapore Post.

3.3. The weight and size limits may be changed from time to time. For the latest information, please call 1800-2225777 or visit us at any of our Singapore Post branches.

4. Delay in Delivery

4.1. Singapore Post shall make reasonable effort to deliver your parcel according to the Speedpost parcel delivery schedules which are estimates only and not guaranteed. The deliveries are subject to possible delays including but not limited to delays by customs or government authorities of the destination country. Singapore Post shall however not be liable (whether in contract, tort or otherwise) for any delays in effecting delivery of your parcel for whatever reasons.

5. Liability

5.1. The liability of Singapore Post is in accordance with the International Postal Parcel regulations.

5.2. Singapore Post shall not in any case be liable for :

- a) Indirect or consequential loss or damage (including but not limited to the loss of profits, business, anticipated savings).

- b) Any loss or damage arising from or in connection with :
- i) its failure to perform any of its obligations hereunder if such failure is the result of circumstances outside its control including but not limited to the outbreak of war, any governmental act, explosion, accident, civil commotion, riot, industrial dispute, strike, lockout, stoppages or restraint of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general, weather conditions, traffic congestion, mechanical breakdown, obstruction of any public or private road or highway or any other force majeure, fire, flood or any other act of God;
  - ii) any defect in respect of the parcel, even if known to Singapore Post when Singapore Post accepted it.
  - iii) your acts of omission, including but not limited to insufficient or improper packing, security or addressing.
  - iv) any action or omissions by anyone other than Singapore Post including but not limited to:
    - you, as the sender of the parcel
    - the addressee
    - an interested third party
    - customs or other government officials; and
    - the carrier or other third party contracted by Singapore Post to serve locations that Singapore Post does not serve directly. Singapore Post shall not be liable even if you did not ask or know about a third party arrangement.
  - v) electrical or magnetic damage to, or erasure of electronic or photographic images or recordings;
  - vi) any loss of secrecy in communication arising from the use of the service;
  - vii) the hazardous fragile or brittle nature of the mechanical derangement of the goods;
  - viii) any consequences of delay or confiscation by any competent authorities as a result of the discovery of prohibited contents.
- c) Delay or non-delivery of the parcel arising from the detention of the parcel by the customs or any government authorities of the destination country.

5.3. Parcels are delivered to the addressee's address as given by you but not necessarily to the named addressee personally. Parcels to addresses with a central receiving area will be delivered to that area, If the addressee refuses delivery or to pay for delivery, or the parcel is deemed to be unacceptable, or it has been undervalued for customs purposes, or the addressee cannot be reasonably identified or located, SingPost shall use reasonable efforts to return the parcel to you at your cost, failing which the parcel may be released, disposed of or sold by SingPost without incurring any liability whatsoever to you or anyone else. The proceeds may be applied against any charges including but not limited to service charges and related administrative costs and the balance of the proceeds of the sale to be returned to you.

6. Insurance

6.1 Please note that high-value items are shipped at your own risk. Insurance is available for your purchase in respect of parcels which are to be sent to a destination country which does not provide compensation payment in cases of loss or damage. Please call us at our Hotline at 1800-222 5777 or visit us at any of our Singapore Post branches for the list of destinations with insurance service. The list of destinations may be subject to change from time to time. You may also wish to obtain independent advice from an expert on insurance matters before proceeding with the insurance of such items. Please note that the shipment insurance does not cover indirect or consequential loss or damage (including but not limited to loss of profits, business and anticipated savings), or loss or damage caused by delays.

7. Your Responsibilities

You shall:

7.1 Ensure that

- a) The parcel is packed in a reasonably strong case, wrapper or cover appropriate to its contents, and so that not part of the contents can be removed without either breaking or tearing the case, wrapper or cover or forcing two adhesive surfaces apart, or breaking a seal.
- b) All contents of the parcel are adequately packed so as to protect against damage in the course of transmission and in particular, but not limited to :
  - i) A parcel which is of a fragile nature shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength and shall be surrounded in that container with sufficient and suitable material to protect the parcel against the effect of such concussions, pressure and knocks to which postal parcels are ordinarily exposed in transmission, and the parcel shall bear the words 'FRAGILE HANDLE WITH CARE' written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address of the addressee;
  - ii) A parcel which is liable to be damaged by bending shall be packed in a container of sufficient strength to prevent the parcel from being bent or otherwise damaged in transmission, and the parcel shall bear the words ' DO NOT BEND' written conspicuously in capital letters on the face of the cover above the address of the addressee.

- c) Parcels prohibited by any law in force in the Republic of Singapore and the country of destination for transmission by post will not be accepted by Singapore Post.

7.2. Be liable for any charges, costs or expenses of whatsoever nature, including but not limited to storage charges, duties and taxes, retrieval and administrative costs in connection with the services performed and/or the parcel in the event that the addressee refuses to pay them.

7.3. Indemnify and keep Singapore Post indemnified at all times from and against all demands, claims, actions, proceedings, charges, postages costs, or expenses including but not limited to storage charges, duties and taxes, retrieval and administrative costs (including reasonable legal costs) incurred, suffered, or sustained by Singapore Post in connection with the services performed hereunder.
